IMPORTANT REMINDERS

SAFETY CONCERNS: (to name a few...)

- Double parking on Lenox Road in the mornings- unsafe and also results in one way traffic on Lenox Road
- Traffic gets backed up all the way to Albany Avenue
- Blocking the driveway entrances of private homes on E. 39th & E. 40th
- Double parking on E. 39th & E. 40th surrounding the school building results in morning and afternoon delays for our Kindergarten kids

SY 2023- 2024

The Community Education Council of District 18 (CEC) is a deliberative body that help to shape educational policies and priorities in our districts. CEC members are parent volunteers who provide hands-on leadership and support for our community's public schools. Participation on these councils is an important responsibility that we encourage every public school parent to consider. To learn more about CEC and how to be a part of this wonderful community organization go to What is CEC?

P.S. 235 Executive Board Open Position

Community Education Council Representative: Attends all Community District Education Council meetings when held, receive information and documents to be brought back to the executive Board.

The term of office shall be from July 1st through June 30th. All parent members are eligible to run for this open position.

Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC)

- All NYCDOE Title I schools are required to have a Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC) that will serve as the consultative and representative body to involve and engage all parents of students who are included in the Title I program. Note: In a Schoolwide Program (SWP) school, all parents are considered Title I parents since all students are included in the Title I program. In a Targeted Assistance (TA) school, only the parents of students included in the targeted Title I program are considered Title I parents.
 - The Title I PAC will participate with the School Leadership Team (SLT) in the joint review, planning, and improvement of the school's Title I program, and the development, revision and review of the parent and family engagement policy.
- Length of Term – PAC and DPAC term is July 1 – June 30; can be either a one- or two-year term.
 - Procedure for Replacing Officers – How officers will be replaced when leaving in the middle of their term.
 - Schedule of Meetings – The Title I PAC meets monthly and hosts regular meetings of the entire school Title I parent body to solicit input, provide updates, and turn-key information.
 - PAC members meet to create agendas for Title I parent meetings.
 - PAC meet with all Title I parents to solicit input to share with the SLT.
 - DPAC members meet to create agendas for DPAC meetings.
 - DPAC meets with PAC Chairs to solicit input to share with the DLT.

ATTACHMENT 1

Roles and Responsibilities of the School Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC)

The Title I PAC will participate with the School Leadership Team (SLT) in the joint review, planning, and improvement of the school's Title I program, and the development, revision and review of the parent and family engagement policy. The Title I PAC meets monthly and hosts regular meetings of the entire school Title I parent body to solicit input, provide updates, and turn-key information.

Duties of Title I PAC Members:

All Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC) members and officers shall regularly attend all scheduled meetings of the Title I PAC as representatives of the school's Title I parent body to provide input and feedback on the school's:

- Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP), which also serves as the Schoolwide Program Plan (SWP) for SWP schools.
- Parent and Family Engagement Policy (PFEP) and School-Parent Compact (SPC).
- Proposed spending plan for the use of the Title I parent and family engagement set-aside funding (a minimum of 1% of the school's Title I allocation) to support Title I parent and family engagement activities.

Duties of Required Title I PAC Officer Positions* (See note below):

The Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC) Chairperson shall:

- Preside at all meetings of the Title I PAC and serve as an ex-officio member of all committees.
- Delegate responsibilities to other Title I PAC members, including appointment of committee chairs, and encourage meaningful participation in all Title I PAC activities.
- Serve as the representative to the District Title I Parent Advisory Council (DPAC) and attend all DPAC meetings.
- Serve on the School Leadership Team (SLT) as the Title I PAC representative.
- Coordinate and draft a proposed spending plan for the use of the Title I parent and family engagement set-aside funding (a minimum of 1% of the school's Title I allocation) for approval by the Title I parents and SLT to support Title I parent and family engagement activities.
- Share information and provide reports to the Title I parents in monthly meetings.
- Meet regularly with PAC officers and members to plan Title I parent meeting agendas and other activities/events.
- Assist with the transfer of Title I PAC records to the incoming officers prior to the end of his/her term.

The Title I PAC Alternate Chairperson shall assist the Title I PAC Chairperson with the duties as outlined above and shall assume his/her duties in his/her absence or at the Chairperson's request.

Duties of Optional PAC Officer Positions* (See note below):

The Title I PAC Recording Secretary shall:

- Prepare Title I PAC meeting notices, agendas, and sign-in sheets.
- Record the minutes at all Title I PAC and Parent meetings.
- Prepare and read the draft minutes at Title I PAC and Parent meetings and make minutes available upon request.
- Share responsibility with other Title I PAC officers for safeguarding all Title I PAC records.
- Assist with the transfer of Title I PAC records to the incoming Title I PAC officers prior to the end of his/her term of office.

The Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC) Corresponding Secretary shall review, maintain, and respond to all Title I PAC correspondence. If no member is willing to serve as the Corresponding Secretary, the Recording Secretary shall assume these responsibilities.

Note: The recommended term of service for an elected Title I PAC officer is two (2) school years. The minimum term of service for a non-elected member of the PAC is one school year. Optional Recording Secretary and Corresponding Secretary Title I PAC officer positions may be elected by the Title I parent body or appointed by the PAC Chairperson.

Superintendent hosts a Title I DPAC meeting to facilitate the election of the Title I DPAC Chairperson and Alternate.

By October 27, 2023

Note: Prior to the DPAC election, the Superintendent confirms the eligibility of school representatives to run and vote for DPAC Chairperson and Alternate as follows:

- Only elected school PAC Chairs and Alternates are eligible to run for DPAC Chairperson and Alternate.
- Each school can only have one person (PAC Chair or Alternate) run for DPAC Chairperson or Alternate.
- Each school can only cast one vote (either the PAC Chair or Alternate) for DPAC Chairperson and Alternate.
- A quorum of at least five (5) Title I schools in the district must be present at the DPAC meeting in order to hold elections for DPAC Chairperson and Alternate.
- Schools may send a designee to attend DPAC meetings for informational purposes, but the designee is not eligible to run for office or to vote in DPAC elections.
